Terrorists plot smuggling chemical warfare into New York City, and also allude to the blowing up of the World Trade Center, before 9/11/2001. I bought this DVD for $3.00 recently and it is the most inept piece of "movie making" I have ever seen. The "action" scenes are so bad that I laughed out loud. The plot, about a terrorist squad that comes in to NYC to unleash a pathogen into the atmosphere, actually has some merit, but it is directed so poorly that one must wonder who financed this debacle. The characters are so cardboard that the actors portraying them must have struggled to keep from laughing when reading their lines. It reminded me of a really bad porn flick, except no sex.

I really find it hard to believe that George Lazenby and Linda Gray were so desperate for work that they participated in this production. They must not have done their due diligence when investigating the production values of the film or they are somehow related to the director.

In order to justify asking anyone to watch this film, it should be made as an example of how not to make a movie. It has been more than three months since I watched this, but I remember very well that it was one of the worst thriller/action movies I have ever watched. I rented this movie checking its rating on IMDb (8.7 at that time), but I was appalled after watching it. Very poor acting, very weak plot, no suspense, nothing that arises at least slightest surprise or interest; complete waste of time. I am very surprised that some people have voted ten for this movie. It really hurt my trust in the ratings of IMDb. I remember doing all kinds of things while trying to sit in front of the TV while this movie played on. I think I could have had a better time just by watching TV commercials instead of this movie. 646f9e108c
